

IYA Continuing Programs

U.S. and Worldwide IYA Programs Continuing into 2010 and Beyond

Galileoscope Educational Telescope Kit & Donation Program
www.galileoscope.org and www.teachwithtelescopes.org

365 Days of Astronomy Podcasts
www.365daysofastronomy.org

Astronomy in Second Life
www.secondastronomy.org

UNESCO Astronomy & World Heritage Initiative
whc.unesco.org/en/astronomy

Galileo Teacher Training Program in the U.S. www.gttpusa.org

Dark Skies Awareness
www.darkskiesawareness.org
www.globeatnight.org

"Dark Skies Rangers" is a new program being adopted internationally by the Galileo Teacher Training Program.

The National Park Service will continue to host star parties & Dark Skies events:
www.darkskiesawareness.org/night-in-park.php

From Earth to the Universe
www.fromearthtotheuniverse.org

List of upcoming U.S. image exhibit locations, continuing through at least 2010:
www.fromearthtotheuniverse.org/table_events.php

Visions of the Universe: Four Centuries of Discovery
www.ala.org/visionsoftheuniverse

Library exhibits will continue to tour through at least March 2010.

The World at Night: One People, One Sky (astrophotography exhibits)
www.twanight.org

Astronomers Without Borders
www.astronomerswithoutborders.org

AWB will support Global Astronomy Month in April 2010.

More IYA Education Programs

Astronomical Society of the Pacific's IYA education programs
www.astrosociety.org/iya/
including Discovery Guides and Cosmic Clearinghouse

An Introduction to Astronomy Education Resources www.manyone.net/cosmicclearinghouse/articles/view/139822/

Cultural Astronomy Summer School, continuing at summer AAS meetings

IYA Media Programs

Two Small Pieces of Glass (planetarium program)
www.400years.org and click Planetarium Program

Let There Be Night (planetarium program for small and portable domes)
www.LetThereBeNight.org

Hubble's Diverse Universe (documentary film)
Public screenings and DVD (website TBA)

The Skies Alive! (film competition)
ursa.as.arizona.edu/~iya2009cast/SkiesAlive.htm
(The website will be updated with a new submission deadline of June 15, 2010.)

Tour of the Universe by Children of the World (music video, DVD, and calendar)
www.starpals.org

IYA Citizen Science Programs

Galaxy Zoo (classify galaxies, supernovae and more) www.galaxyzoo.org

GLOBE at Night (star counting program around new moon in March every year)
www.globeatnight.org

Great World Wide Star Count (around new moon in October every year)
www.starcount.org

Citizen Sky / Epsilon Aurigae (variable star observing program)
www.citizensky.org
The Citizen Sky program is funded through August 2012.

NASA's Mars Science Program (study craters and topography)
beamartian.jpl.nasa.gov